The Joy Of Aging - Coffee Table Book

"Art has the power to transform, to illuminate, to educate, inspire and motivate.

Art speaks where words are unable to explain."

Georgia O'Keeffe

This compilation of beautiful artwork exemplifies the creative process and how our Social Adult Day programs use art as a powerful tool to help people living with various forms of dementia stay connected to the world and feel a renewed sense of purpose.

Size 10" x 10"

Price $36

“Time To Make The Donuts!”

The great donut project is the culmination of a year long effort by our seniors and a select group of invited guests. These not so tasty papier-mâché treats still look very inviting.

Size 30 1/2” x 34 1/2”

Materials Papier-mâché, acrylic on board

Price $500

“Many, Many Monas”

DaVinci’s masterpiece has gone wild in this fantastic, mixed media construction.

Size 24” x 24”

Materials Watercolor, markers, feathers, glitter, metallic confetti and rhinestones on many, many canvases

Price $180

“I’ll Have The Pink One”

This giant pink button donut looks almost good enough to eat!

Size 24” x 24”

Materials Acrylic on canvas with plastic buttons

Price $150

“Little Piece of our hearts”

A piece of each and every one of our hearts went into the making of this grand construction. It truly is a work of love.

Size 34” x 34”

Materials Watercolor with oil pastels on papers

Price $300
